

FREE COMIC BOOK DAY

FOOLS

Vita Delsante & Rachel Freire

FCHS

Do you remember high school? All the fun and trouble you used to get into? All of the sex, sports and alcohol that was your Senior year? It's time to go back! Join Hector, Kennedy, Jules and the whole gang at FCHS as they begin their last year of high school. Will they be ready for "the real world" when it's all over? Will they all make it? Vito Delsante has written Batman, Wolverine, Scooby-Doo, Red Sonja and Superman. He's also written about the childhood of baseball legend, Babe Ruth, for Simon and Schuster. Rachel Freire has been doodling since the age of two. FCHS is her first comic ever!

Driven by Lemons

by Joshua Cotter, which should be out later this year.

Remake

Remake is 144 pages of silly action and crazy nonsense. Right now the story focuses on Max Guy, a robot boy who can't seem to stay out of trouble. He's got this gun called the >MAX BLASTER< that turns things into stuff. Max Guy likes: 1) blue skies, 2) video games and 3) bread pudding. Max Guy hates: 1) mean people, 2) getting beat up, and 3) crap.

>>> Immature, sophisticated, and borrowing equally from manga and Western comics, Remake is poised to unite all comic fans with the power of a good puke joke. <<< — Hope Larson, Salamander Dream

Look for the Remake in May!
